RESPONSIVE READING

Genesis 1:1-10 (NIV)

LEADER: In the beginning God created the heavens and the earth.

RESPONSE: Now the earth was formless and empty, darkness was over the surface of the deep, and the Spirit of God was hovering over the waters.

LEADER: And God said , “Let there be light,” and there was light.

RESPONSE: God saw that the light was good, and he separated the light from the darkness.

LEADER: God called the light “day,” and the darkness he call he called “night.” And there was evening, and there was morning—the first day.

RESPONSE: And God said, “Let there be a vault between the waters to separate water from water.”

LEADER: So God made the vault and separated the water under the vault from the water above it. And it was so.

RESPONSE: God called the vault “sky.” And there was evening, and there was morning—the second day.

LEADER: And God said, “Let the water under the sky be gathered to one place, and let dry ground appear.” And it was so.

ALL: God called the dry ground “land,” and the gathered waters he called “seas.” And God saw that it was good.
